

Guiding Questions for Data-Driven Informational Parent Meetings and Staff Professional Learning

To ensure that the information offered to parents of children and youth experiencing homelessness and the professional learning (PL) offered to LEA staff is continuously adapted to meet their needs throughout the school year and summer, please consider guiding questions below:

- What ongoing data will be collected and analyzed to determine the effectiveness of the informational parent meeting/PL for LEA staff in supporting participants in attaining the session's objective?
- What does the data reveal about the extent to which the skillsets and/or understanding of parents/LEA staff are being meaningfully developed?
- Based on the data, what adaptations should be made to upcoming informational parent meetings/PL sessions?
 - What planning is needed to implement these data-driven adaptations?
- How will the connection between the data collected and the informational parent meetings/PL sessions be shared with participants?
